TOPIK (Test of Proficiency in Korean)

This examination aims to promote the use of the Korean language and set a proper path in Korean language learning for overseas Koreans and foreigners who do not speak Korean as a mother tongue language.

Level | Common Points | Score Points
---|---|---
1 | Able to carry out basic conversations related to daily social activities. | 03
2 | Able to understand and compress simple and useful sentences based on about 800 examples of basic vocabulary and grammar. | 04
3 | Able to perform basic linguistic tasks necessary to use various public facilities and maintain social relationships. | 05

For Levels 4 to 6, it is difficult to compare TOPIK with the Sogang KLEC courses. While Sogang KLEC courses focus mainly on speaking practice through speaking-oriented teaching methods, enabling students to effectively improve their communicative skills, TOPIK consists of writing, reading, and listening tests.

Scholarships
- Top Student Scholarship: 1 student per level (50% discount on tuition for the following session)
- Special Scholarship: 1 student per class (25% discount on tuition for the following session)
- Sogang KLEC Special Scholarship: A waiver of up to 25% for students with a letter of recommendation from the director of a Korean language department or a Korean language instructor.

Benefits
- Open to students who are admitted to Sogang University and are exempt from the Korean language test.
- Students who are admitted to the university are exempt from paying admissions fees.
- Open only to TOPIK/RKIP above Level 4; students receive up to 4 credits.

Features
- Students can apply for all courses through the KLEC homepage (https://klec.sogang.ac.kr).
- Students can register for the placement test through the KLEC homepage.
- Students who are accepted into the program will be notified via e-mail.
- Students can register for the program after the application deadline.
