2. Exam Guidelines of the 2021 Fall Semester for International Student

- According to the 'Guidelines for Fall 2021 Courses' from the Office of the registrar, the mid-term and final exams are all conducted offline. Also, since academic policy may flexible depending on the COVID-19 situation, it is strongly advised students to enter Korea if circumstances allow.

- However, students who are unable to enter Korea and staying abroad as of September 1st, 2021, due to COVID 19 situation such as national lockdown or visa issuance restrictions or flight reservations delays and restriction, can be exempted to take the exams offline. (Conduct evaluation by non-face-to-face test)

- Students who are in abroad as of September 1st, 2021, DO NOT need to apply for offline exemptions, since the Office of International Affairs will require exit and entry data of all enrolled international students to the Immigration Office. The information will be delivered to the professor or instructors of each class through the Office of the Registrar and Education Center for International Students.

- Students staying in Korea as of September 1st, 2021 are NOT subject to the exemption. So, be careful that not to return home arbitrarily after September 1st, 2021.

- Students who are scheduled to enter Korea after September 1st, 2021 can take face-to-face exam by contact the TA or professor of each class.

※ Please note that the above information can be changed depending on the domestic and foreign COVID-19 situation.

※ Please check the information on the 'Courses Offered Info' and the syllabus of each course carefully to check course and exam format.
